Agency Overview and Organization

The Office of Finance and Resource Management (OFRM) is structured to support the levels of relationships within the infrastructure for the District Government. There are functional, representative, and reporting relationships OFRM is responsible for maintaining. The primary level of functional relationships encompasses shared budgetary and financial services and centralized miscellaneous vendor payments on behalf of the Office of Contracts and Procurement, Office of Property Management, Executive Office of the Mayor, College Access Program, Board of Elections and Ethics, Office of the City Administrator, and OFRM. The representative (secondary level) relationship involves budget development and execution, vendor payments, financial oversight to maintain the integrity of the District Government, and collaboration with other agencies within the Office of the Chief Financial Office (OCFO) cluster to ensure optimal management of agency resources. The reporting (or tertiary) relationship revolves around requests for information, preparation and presentation of testimony as required, recommendations for legislation, and attendance to hearings and execution of legislative actions. These three levels define the scope of OFRM and the means by which the agency goals shall be achieved from one fiscal year to the next.

FY 2001 Proposed Operating Budget

The Office of Finance and Resource Management's Operating Budget is composed of two categories: (1) Personal Services (PS), and (2) Nonpersonal Services (NPS).

Within the PS budget category are several object classes of expenditure such as regular pay, other pay, additional gross pay, and fringe benefits. Within the NPS budget category are several object classes of expenditure such as supplies and materials, utilities, communications, rent, other services and charges, contractual services, subsidies and transfers, equipment and equipment rental, and debt service.

Authorized spending levels present the dollars and related full-time equivalents (FTE) by revenue type. Revenue types include: Local (tax and non-tax revenue not earmarked for a particular purpose); Federal (revenue provided by the federal government to support federally established programs or grants for a particular purpose); Private and Other (charitable contributions and fees from fines, etc); and Intra-District (payments for services provided by one District agency to another District agency).
